DELMARVA VETERAN BUILDERS HIRED TO BUILD NEW REHOBOTH BEACH PARKING METER BUILDING

SALISBURY, MD – Delmarva Veteran Builders, the region’s only commercial construction firm dedicated to bringing employment to U.S. Armed Forces Veterans, announced its first new construction project for the city of Rehoboth Beach. DVB has been hired to build a new 3,500 square foot administrative office for the Rehoboth Beach Parking Meter Department at 229 Rehoboth Beach Avenue in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

“We are excited to have the opportunity to take on a new construction project for the city of Rehoboth Beach, said Chris Eccleston, Delmarva Veteran Builders, president. “We know timing is of the essence for a tourist community like Rehoboth and will deliver the final product on time for the 2016 summer season.”

“We know Delmarva Veteran Builders was low bid on the project but we also know they have a good reputation in the area for quality work,” said Kevin Lucas, senior project manager, EDiS Company.

The single story, wood framed structure will have slab-on-grade floors and metal roofing with a masonry exterior. EDiS Company based in Lewes, Delaware has been hired as the construction manager by the City of Rehoboth Beach who will own the building. DVB is scheduled to be complete the build by summer, 2016.
